MANSFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

We, the Class of 1955

Dedicate this Yearbook

to the People of Mansfield, who through their many sacrifices have given us this

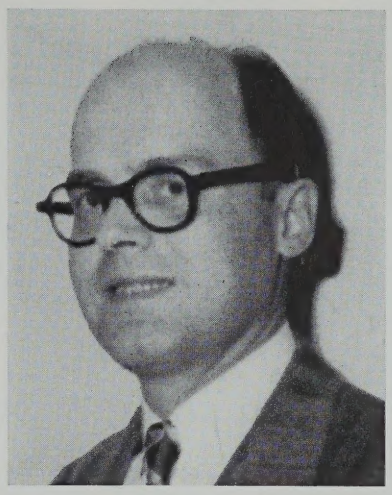
New and Outstanding High School

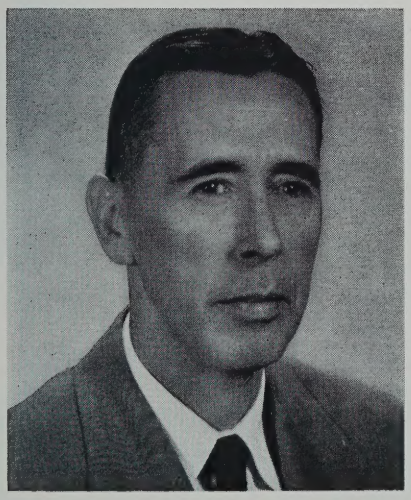
Our Superintendent

A learned man has always riches in himself

(Phaedrus Fables)



MR. GERALD ANDERSON



MR. HARRY MUSHROE

Our Principal

We are firm believers in the maxim that, for all right judgement of any man or thing, it is useful, nay, essential, to see his good qualities before pronouncing on his bad.

Class of 1956

The Junior Class under the able leadership of their advisors, Miss Shepard and Miss Welch have had a very successful year. They began the year with class elections. Elected were "Billy" Reynolds, President; "Cisco" Annese, Vice President; "Margie" Camara, Secretary; and Sally Palanza, Treasurer.

This year the Juniors received their class rings which were greatly admired by everyone.

The Junior boys outstanding in sports are "Junior" Bolin, "Billy" Reynolds, "Chuck" King, "Ron" Baril, Francis Baldini, Donny Partington and Bob Cipriani. Outstanding in girls' sports are "Edie" Holt, "Viv" Laprise, Marcia Stewart, "Ginny" Paine, Kathy McKay, "Viv" Medeiros, Nancy Velletri, Jean Jeanguenin and "Sandy" Olney.

The scholastic averages of the class rank very high and give many Juniors a bright outlook to the future.

Their social calendar consists of two dances, The Question Mark Dance and The Snow Flake Festival. The Juniors have started their work on the reception which looks as though it is going to be a gala affair.

The Seniors hope that next year will be a most successful one for this up-and-coming class.

Class of 1957

The Sophomores with Miss Henchell and Miss Darmedy as advisors began this year with class elections. Elections results were: "Johnny" Todesco, President; Johnny Pomfret, Vice President; Maureen Maxwell, Secretary; and Dawn Bliss, Treasurer.

The Sophomore Class held two dances this year. Both of their social affairs were greatly enjoyed by M.H.S.

Participating in Boy's Sports were Johnny Todesco, Johnny Pomfret, Roy Bolin, Herbie Baptiste, Eddy Sheehy, and Joe Viscardi. Outstanding in Girls Basketball were Nancy Ockert, and Kathy Paine. The Sophomores have also given M.H.S. four cheerleaders, Jan Velletri, "Dottie" Delutis, Maureen Maxwell, and Ida DePalma.

We hope that this active class will enjoy prosperity in their remaining two years at M.H.S.

Class of 1958

This year's freshmen have adapted themselves very well to M.H.S. in both social events and in their studies. They began their year under the direction of their advisors Mr. Tighe and Mr. Wright. As class officers they elected "Jackie" Shea, President; Donnie Baptiste, Vice President; Mary Jo Palanza, Secretary; and Louie Garland, Treasurer.

The Freshmen have made a very large contribution in sports. Among the many outstanding participants in Boys Sports were, "Jackie" Shea, "Jimmie" Card, "Al" Cutillo, Karl Clemmey, "Louie" Garland, William Harlor, Bart Jackson, Dick Blandori, and Bing Cinelli. The Freshmen girls taking part in Basketball were "Janie" Ward and "Connie" Ball.

We hope that the Freshman Class will keep up their hard work and make their next 3 years just as successful.

Activities

Combined Glee Club

This group of mixed voices has progressed rapidly in the past year. We certainly would like to hear more of that tenor and bass section and before long we probably will.

Girls' Glee Club

These girls have provided some enjoyable music at many of our assemblies and at meetings of different organizations in the town. Four members recently very ably represented Mansfield at the Massachusetts All State Band in Boston.

Band

This rapidly progressing band is certainly a credit to Mansfield schools and we are sure it will keep growing and producing its fine music.

Driver Education

Many new drivers were turned loose on the road this year. This course has become very popular as is very evident by the size of the class.

Tatler

The "Tatler" this year has put out fine issues. Editor-in-chief Carol Briggs intends to put out a printed issue in May.

Auto Club

These automobile enthusiasts have joined together because of their mutual interests. When a group of "hot rodders" get together, "Look out!"

Girls' Varsity Club

The girls this year enjoyed the new facilities of the gym including ping pong, shuffleboard, and badminton during their club period.

Rifle Club

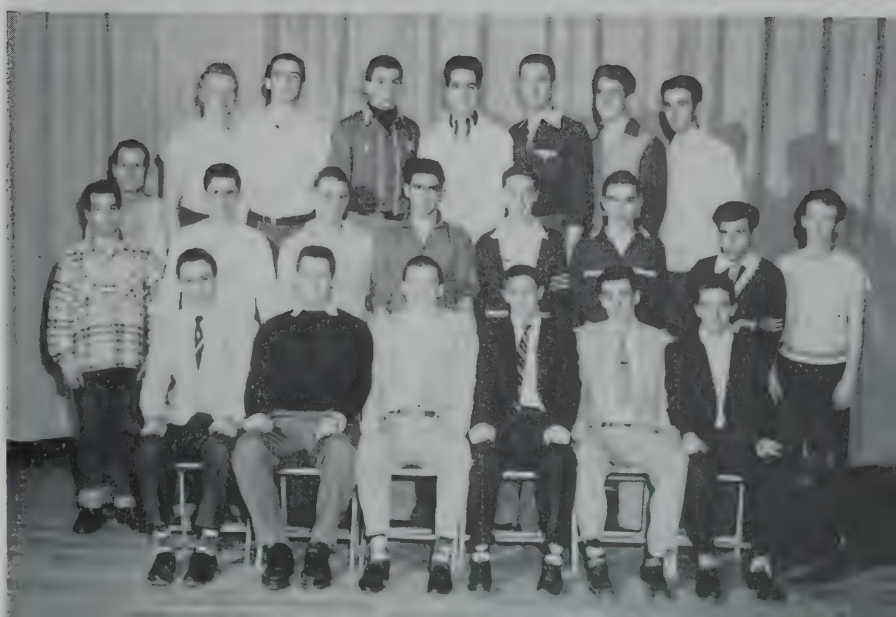
The members of this club have been attending meetings of the rifle range every Saturday. With the help of their advisor, Mr. Payden, they are now trying to raise money to buy jackets.

Dramatics Club

The members of this club are working hard writing and acting out their own plays during the club period. Miss Hannon is the new advisor of the club.

Boys Gym Club

Under the leadership of Coach Waters the boys are preparing for the gym exhibition this spring. This is the first year this club has been in existence.

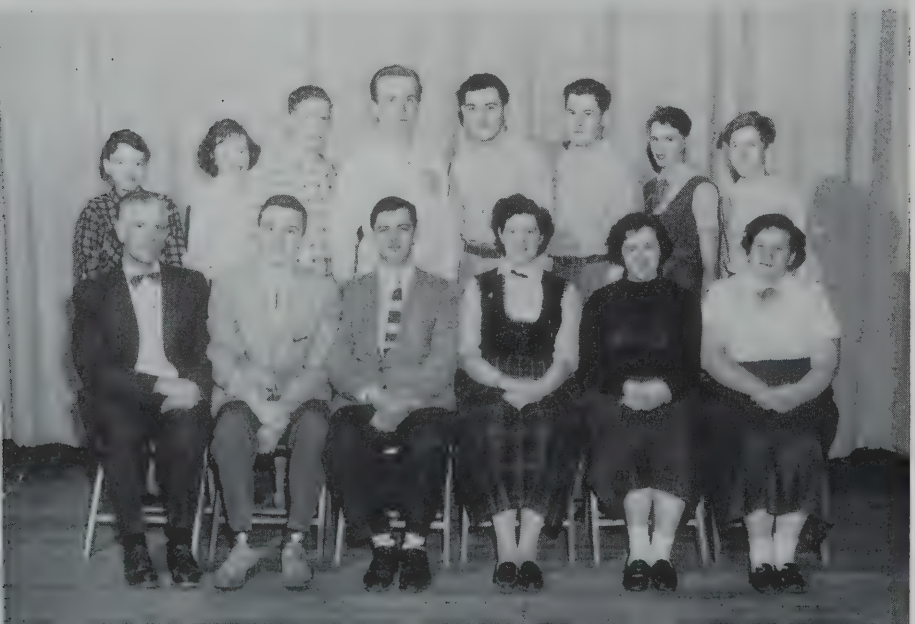


Music Theory and Harmony

This industrious group of future musicians have been studying the fundamentals of writing music this past year. We are sure that in a very short time this club will expand and become very popular.

Junior Red Cross

With the leadership of Miss Jones the girls have made ashtrays and favors for the Veteran's Hospitals and are also preparing a program to be presented to the Brockton Veteran's Hospital.

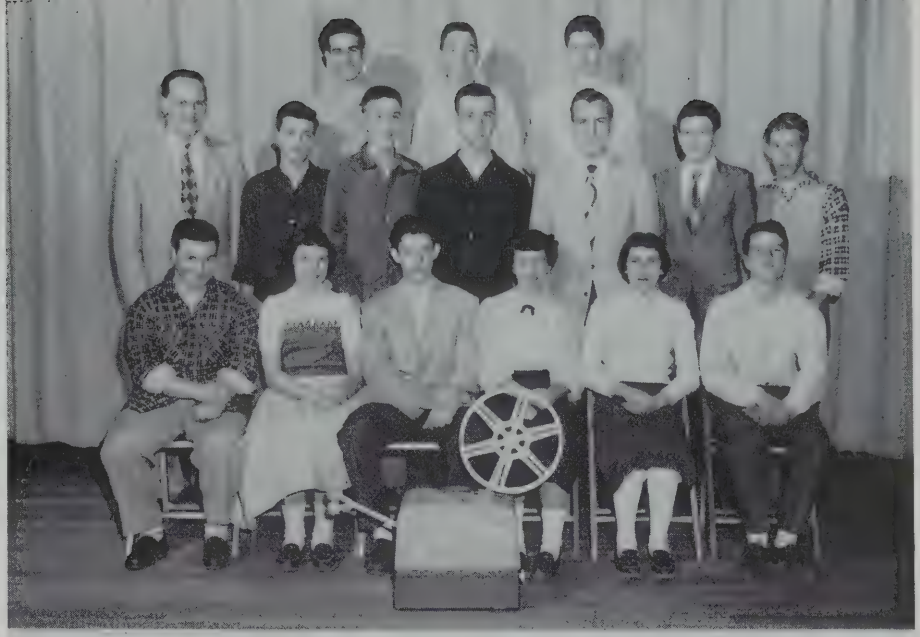


Photography Club

Under the supervision of Mr. Pierce the members of the photography club were seen around the building Thursday Activity Period taking candid shots of the various activities. Later they learned the art of development.

Operators Club

These mechanical minded members have been learning how to operate the movie projector. They are the ones who, by taking turns at operating the projector, have made it possible for many classes to see movies.



Junior Secretaries

These girls, under the supervision of Miss Driscoll, did various tasks to help the teachers throughout the school year.

Needle Craft Club

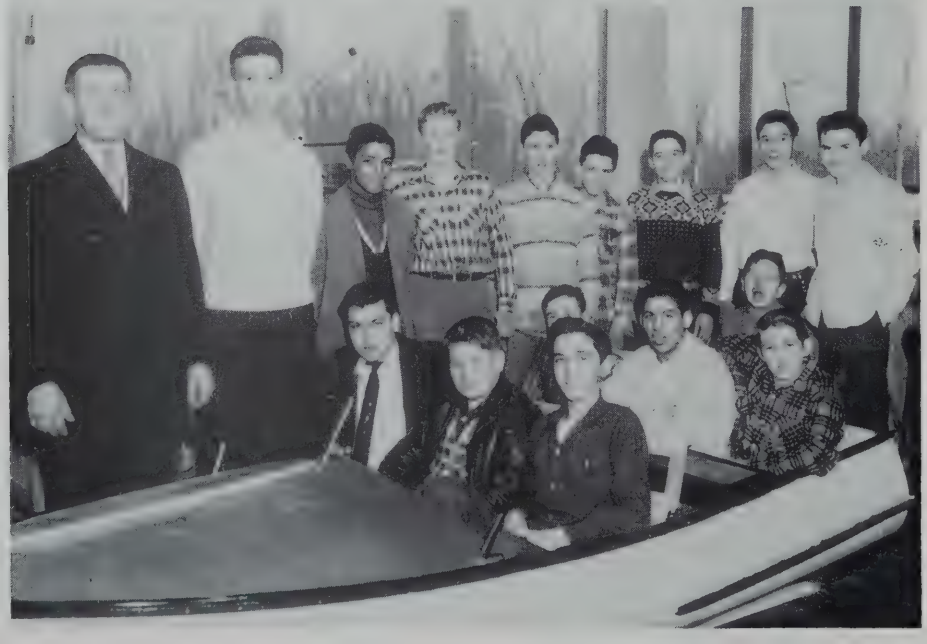
The girls are improving their skills in knitting and embroidering with Mrs. Whitmore as their advisor. This club was formerly called the Homemaking Club.

Oil Painting Club

This industrious group has spent many hours at their easels. These future artists from M.H.S. certainly have produced some very fine work.

Ceramics Club

We're sure you have all seen the exhibits in the showcase of the lobby showing the fine work this group does.



Model Club

Under the capable supervision of Mr. Eastman, the Model Club in its first year at the high school succeeded in making an educational as well as an enjoyable activity period for all its members.

Golf Club

The Golf Club was formed early in the fall. The club, composed of experienced and inexperienced players, plays golf in the park every sunny day. The club is under the direction of Mr. Guiliani.

Clinic Assistants

These girls are doing a fine job. They ably took charge of the nurse's office during her absence.

Cafeteria Workers

At 12:00 noon the doors of the second floor corridor open and Mrs. Titmas's helpers go down to the kitchen to prepare for the rush hour.

Gym Club

The Gym Club is composed of a group of girls who are interested in the improvement of posture and in participating in group game activities. Most of their time has been spent with the Varsity Club. The Gym Club appreciates and has enjoyed this combination very much.

Assembly Committee

The Assembly Committee was organized to plan future assemblies for M.H.S. under the leadership of Miss Darmedy and Miss Driscoll.

The Class of '55 gratefully acknowledges the assistance and counsel given by our teachers in helping us to produce a better yearbook.

Our thanks also to the members of our typewriting staff who have helped us greatly.

The above softball schedule has not been definitely established as games with Attleboro and North Attleboro will be added. The Green Hornettes, under the direction of Coach Janet Arnold, recently started softball practice. The returning veterans from last year's squad include: Jackie Agan, Helen Boynton, "Duffy" Codding, Norma DeVine, Edie Holt, Kathy McKay, Nancy Ockert, and Nancy Spaulding.

This year Coach Arnold has included a new event in the Girls' Sport's Lineup, a track team for the Green Hornettes. At least two track meets will be held at Bridgewater. Many interested athletes are expected to show up for practice.

May both these teams have as successful a season as the UNDEFEATED female hoopsters had in basketball.

Class History

by Janet Martin

We began at the dawning
But the end will never come
For education is one thing
That will ne'er have a setting sun.

One beautiful day in the early fall of September, 1951, we, the class of '55, bewildered as we bravely entered the mystifying portals of M.H.S., wondered just what the future years would unfold.

Within a month, under the guidance of our advisors Miss Lyman and Coach Waters, we had elected our freshman class officers: Mario Morini, President; Joanne Wills, Vice President; Thelma Walker, Secretary; and Jeanette Ferri, Treasurer.

Our class, as all other previous ones, contributed to the usual confusion by asking such questions as "Where's room 14?" and "Where's the office?" The lab was no trouble to find as you could smell your way to "it!" Before long we were traditionally pegged "Pea Green Freshmen." We soon learned that the seniors had a lot of push and pull, even if most of it was push.

Our only one important event of the year was the dance held in the spring of 1952. Since most of the inquisitive upperclassmen attended, it was a success both financially and socially.

Throughout the year we contributed many future athletic stars to M.H.S. They included William Eastman, James Evans, "Sibby" Falcone, Thomas Foster, Robert Griswold, "Sonny" Guerrini, Kevin Jackson, William Maxwell, Mario Morini, Francis Murphy, Henry Olney, Richard O'Malley, Martin Ross, Pete Sabin, Robert Shaw, Robert Thomas, William Todesco, William Travers, and Anthony Vadala. The first to support the M.H.S. Hornettes were Jackie Agan, "Duffy" Codding, Janet Martin, and Nancy Spaulding.

In June for the first time, we attended Class Day Exercises. The Grand Old Seniors made their departure into the wide, wide world to the wavering tune of "Where Oh Where."

Soon September again arrived and we, as Gay Young Sophomores, carried out the task of class elections. The results were: Donald Flynn, President; Henry Olney, Vice President; Carol Briggs, Secretary; and Jeanette Ferri, Treasurer.

Many of our class enrolled in the numerous activities such as Girls' and Boys' Glee Club, Aeronautics Club, Dramatics Club, Projector Operators' Club, the Tatler, and the Stamp Club.

Our two social events of the year were the dances held in December and May. Each one was a success.

In February, a ring committee with Nancy Spaulding as chairman was selected. With the assistance of our class advisors, Dieges and Clust was chosen to make our rings. We anxiously awaited their arrival in June, as we wished to wear them to the Senior Reception. Being the first class to receive the rings in our sophomore year, we proudly displayed them by holding our hands at 45 degree angles, so no one could possibly miss the precious gems.

In addition to last year's sports lineup were David Dustin, Donald Fagan, Pete Fournier, James Gordon, and John Mitchell. The newcomers to support the M.H.S. Hornettes were Jean Burrell, Norma Devine, Jeanette Ferri, Elaine Marcheselli, Shirley Shepardson, Marcia Thayer, and Joanne Wills. The only sophomores to be chosen as cheerleaders were Janet Guild and Janet Martin.

Attending Class Day Exercises once again, we, as Gay Young Sophomores, gladly bade the seniors good-by; for now our destination was nearer in sight.

Returning to school the following September as Jolly Juniors, only the Seniors could surpass us in our display of superiority complexes.

We soon settled down to the duty of electing class officers under the guidance of Coach Waters and our two new advisors, Miss Hannon and Mr. Kehoe. The results were: William Maxwell, President; Martin Ross, Vice President; Carol Briggs, Secretary; and Jeanette Ferri, Treasurer.

Two of our dances were held in November and May; but our most important event of the year, the Senior Reception, was yet to come.

Towards the end of the year, Loring Studio was chosen by a large majority as our class photographer.

About this time Sylvia White was elected as delegate for Girls' State, sponsored by the American Legion. Jeanette Ferri was selected as alternate. Leonard Belli and David Dustin were chosen as delegates for Boys' State, also sponsored by the American Legion. Thomas Foster and Pete Sabin were selected as alternates. Honorary members of the New Century Club were Ruth Shribman, Sylvia White, and Joanne Wills.

Reinforcing last year's sports lineup were Janet Guild and Sylvia Pasqueriello for the Green Hornettes. Elaine Marcheselli was the third peppy cheerleader chosen from our class.

As the end of the school year approached, we realized we would have to establish the plans for our Senior Reception. Mario Morini and Marcia Thayer were chosen as co-chairmen. After several trips to Dennison's in Boston, the decorations were finally picked. Our motif was "A Formal Spring Garden." Never did the Mansfield Town Hall look more beautiful!

For the last time we bade the seniors good-by at Class Day. The morning following the Senior Reception we, still underclassmen, managed to drag ourselves back to school to receive report cards, our one way ticket to the senior class.

The following September we entered school as Grand Old Seniors, a respected position for which we had waited three long years. But this year we had something even better, a brand new high school. Now freshmen and seniors alike had to ask such questions as "Where's room 221?" and "Where's the office?" No longer could we even smell our way to the lab, until our "mad scientists" resumed their work, and the pungent aroma of the "hydrogen sulfide bomb" filtered through the rooms.

For the last time we elected our class officers. The results were: William Maxwell, President; Mario Morini, Vice President; Carol Briggs, Secretary; and Jeanette Ferri, Treasurer.

Throughout the year we held four dances; three of them in October, November, and December.

Before Christmas, most of the senior class had treked to Boston to have their pictures taken. With the arrival of photographs, a short while later, many handsome poses were displayed to the admiring underclassmen.

Next on the agenda was the traditional class play sponsored by the seniors under the direction of Mr. Tighe. "Money Mad," played through February seventeenth and eighteenth, to a very enthusiastic audience. Included in the cast were: "Edgar", David Dustin; "Cora", Carol Briggs; "Janet", Janet Guild; "Babs", Elaine Marcheselli; "Larry", Gordon Carr; "Maude", Nancy Spaulding; "Keith", Mario Morini; "Rickey", Pete Sabin; "Effie", Joan Pomfret; "Maggie", Shirley Shepardson; "Mr. Grant", William Todesco; "Tony", Robert Shaw; "Jimmy", Delos Brown; "Eddie", Thomas Foster; "Bob", David May; "Gloria", Ruth Shribman; "Alma", Joanne Wills; and "Dottie", Helen Carr. This production was a huge success.

Under the direction of Mr. Payden and the co-editors, David Dustin and Joanne Wills, the plans for our yearbook were initiated. Included in the staff were: Iris Jeanquenin, Business Manager; Carol Briggs, Delos Brown, Thomas Foster, Janet Guild, Elaine Marcheselli, and Thelma Walker, Senior Biographers; Jeanette Ferri, Other Classes; Jean MacVicar, Ruth Shribman, and Elaine Thompson, Activities; Leonard Belli and Janet Martin, Sports; Jean Burrell, Duncan Ferguson, Donald Lovely, and Marcia Thayer, Advertisements; Phyllis Lunn, Dorothy Manson, Sylvia Pasqueriello, Gloria Ricci, and Josie Scialoia, Typists; Doris Codding and Robert Nordberg, Art and Photography. This yearbook, of course, surpassed the ones of previous years with its white leather cover as the outstanding feature. The 1955 "Our Green Years" was one of the most attractive yearbooks ever published.

In March we chose our class flower, the carnation; our class colors, mint green and silver; and our class motto, "Out of School Life, Into Life's School."

Announcement of honors was made by our principal, Mr. Mushroe, at a class meeting on April fourth. Essayists were: David Dustin, Jeanette Ferri, Ruth Shribman, and Joanne Wills; Class History, Janet Martin; Class Prophecy, Janet Guild; Class Will, Elaine Marcheselli and Iris Jeanquenin. Joanne Wills was our Good Citizen sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution. Robert Thomas was our Good Government Representative. Our Junior Rotarians were David Dustin, Thomas Foster, Donald Lovely, William Maxwell, Mario Morini, and Martin Ross.

A Spaghetti Supper, a new event sponsored by our senior class, was held on April fourteenth in the school cafeteria. Everyone enjoyed his favorite meal, and the senior cooks were highly complimented as many people attended the supper. We hope that a Spaghetti Supper will become an annual event sponsored by each senior class.

The traditional "Hobo-Hop" was held April fifteenth with everyone attending dressed as ruffians. "Bow Day" soon followed this rowdy event with the seniors displaying colorful and variegated bows!

Student Government Day, held on April twenty-seventh, was a mixed-up commotion as the seniors took over the town affairs. A good time was enjoyed by both the students and the town officials, with each side reaping many benefits.

Commencement Exercises were held on the following dates: Baccalaureate Sunday, June twelfth, at the Congregational Church and Saint Mary's Church; Class Day, June thirteenth; Graduation Exercises, June fourteenth; and the Senior Reception, June sixteenth.

Our four years in Mansfield High School are behind us. I have endeavored to compile correctly, the statistics of the Class of 1955. These years have been an exciting experience for all of us.

With mingled emotions of joy and sadness, and many cherished memories, we, the Senior Class of 1955, go out of school life, into life's school.

Class Will

by Elaine Marcheselli and Iris Jeanguenin

We, the graduating class of 1955, hereby departing from this abyss of learning, in deep sorrow and overwhelming joy, do make and declare this to be our last will and testament. This document revokes all previous wills that may have been drawn up by individual members of our esteemed class.

To Mr. Anderson we leave a suit of armor so that he may safely glide through our spacious but dangerous corridors.

To Mr. Mushroe we leave the recommendation that an addition be added to his private office so that he may more comfortably accommodate his daily "guests" or should I say "jests"!

To the faculty we leave a very sincere wish—may each of you someday have a full ten minutes to yourself for lunch and relaxation—possible but not probable.

To the Juniors we leave the privilege of using the upstairs during lunch-time. It's such fun to be "alone"!

To the Sophomores we leave our dignified behaviour and our noble manners. They are in excellent condition because we woefully admit we didn't use them too often.

To the Freshmen we leave one piece of advice. Start building up your treasury "now". Your yearbook in "58" will probably cost $3,000.00.

The following are individual bequests:

Norma Devine leaves her willingness to debate to any argumentative underclassman.
Jeanette Ferri leaves her all-around ability and her pair of dumbbells to Rachel Young.
Paula Thompson leaves her poodle cut to Pat "pony tail" Keleher in hopes that this combination will not prove dangerous.
Sonny Morini leaves his flashy clothes to that up and coming wolf Carmin Mondillo.
Josie Scialoia leaves a pamphlet entitled "How to Train a D. A." to Joe Vicino who certainly doesn't need it.
Bobby Griswold leaves Kathy to the mercy of the wolves.
David Dustin wills his scholastic ability to anyone willing to work for it.
Jim Evans bestows his way with Freshman girls to George Antosca.
Don Fagan leaves his physical fitness records to Bruce Lingly.
Bill "Clem" Todesco leaves his secret formula for home brew to next year's chem whiz.
Butch Murphy leaves his book "Love 'Em and Leave 'Em" to Bob Cipriani.
Bob Shaw leaves his rotten fish supply from the class play to next year's Laurence Olivier.
Jan Guild leaves her endless energy as our cheering captain to Sally Palanza and Kathy McKay.
Kevin Jackson leaves his love (?) for school to Kenny Cahill.
Alice and Arlene Long leave their differences to the "carbon copy" Bartlett twins so that the confusion will finally be ended.

Eleanor Fales leaves her job at the drug store to anyone who can handle it.
Carol Toepler leaves to any new-comer Andrew Carnegie's book entitled "How to Win Friends and Influence People," which she used with great success.
Tony Vadala leaves his deck of cards to Jimmy Eastman to see if his interests can be carried on.
Thelma Walker leaves her name on Mr. Mushroe's probation list to anyone who likes to roam the halls during activity period.
Bob Nordberg leaves his hair styles for men to Ralph DiChara so he can add to his own collection of weird creations.
Sonja Ohle leaves an empty parking space for next year's dare-devil driver Al Cutillo.
Sylvia Pasquariello leaves M.H.S. to enter the secretarial field.
Shirley Shepardson leaves her knack of keeping things noisy to Inta Liepins if she can keep up the pace.
Don Lovely leaves his title "Lover" to Henry Carine with hopes that he can live up to it.
Charles Farley leaves his wolfish grin, that clever wink and his five year Esquire subscription to Cisco Annese.
George Weber leaves a lunch in Mr. Payden's P.O.D. class to any Junior who can get away with it.
Joan Pomfret leaves with the thought "go east man, go east".
Ruth Shribman leaves her good marks to Vinnie Brown with hopes that he will achieve the success that she did.
Phyllis Lunn leaves her quiet, easy going manner to the Freshman girls who can make very good use of it.
Jean MacVicar leaves the thought, "speech is great but silence is greater," to Sandra "Gabby" Folcik.
Duncan Ferguson leaves his ability for successful undertakings to next year's most ambitious person.
Jackie Agan leaves her never-failing energy and interest in sports to Edie Holt.
Lenni Belli leaves M.H.S. to follow in the footsteps of the great Spike Jones.
Ralph Maloon leaves Mr. Guiliani helpless, with no mathematical genius to give him support.
Mary Smith leaves her lady-like qualities to Mary Lou Pedini.
Bob Brackett leaves his liking for rifles and pistols to George Francis for his own protection.
Dottie Manson leaves her witty ways to Margaret Gulan whom we have yet to see smile.
Nancy Spaulding passes on a book entitled "How to Learn Lines the Night Before the Class Play" to next year's cast.
Marcia Thayer leaves her interest in Foxboro to Barbara DePalma.
Benny Brown leaves his title of "Most Sociable" to Dotty DeLutis; she does all right for herself anyway.
Bill Maxwell leaves with M.H.S. a perfect example of good sportsmanship, popularity and leadership.
Carol Briggs leaves Jane Hartwell the consoling thought that there are plenty of men over six feet tall.
Gene Thibault leaves to Luigi Giovino his ten commandments guaranteed to make Luigi the best behaved pupil in Miss Hannon's class.
Bill Buck leaves his mania for hunting to Dotty "The Flirt" Nicholson with the advice to stick to four legged deer.
Jan Martin leaves her little black book to next year's "Miss Efficiency".
Jeannie Burrell leaves quoting "stone walls do not a prison make, nor iron bars a cage".
Bob Thomas leaves to Michael Martin some brawn in exchange for some helpful hints in homework.
David May leaves hoping that he won't be stopped on the way out.
Gloria "Squeeky" Ricci leaves her squeeks in the innermost corners to haunt Mr. Kehoe thru the coming years.
Joanne Wills leaves her headaches from working in Young's to anyone who can cope with the "Matty Boys".
Tommie Foster leaves his S.O.S. pads to Billy Reynolds in hopes that he will keep his white walls just as clean.
Dickie Galanti leaves Ida in care of the Junior boys.

Bob Wyckoff leaves a list of corny jokes to Teddy Freeman.
Ricky O'Malley leaves his shaving equipment to Paul Schulz—Please make use of this.
Donnie Flynn leaves to become a "real Governor" of the Figi Islands.
Duffy Codding leaves Miss Arnold to struggle through her gym classes.
Angie DiMaggio leaves to Betty Lou "don't gotta" Byrne her crazy New York accent.
John Mitchell leaves a hammer to Butch Razie so he can make an impression on the teachers.
Martin Ross leaves his natural blond hair to Ann Sheehan.
Pete Sabin leaves his "red" hot rod to the poor lady whom he chased off the sidewalk.
Butch Gormley leaves his devil-may-care attitude to Eddy Sheehy, who needs no pointers in the matter.
Barbara Dunne leaves to begin a career as Flash Gordon's hostess for the future Space Cadets of the world.
Elaine Thompson leaves her musical ability and pleasing way to any fortunate person.
Helen Carr leaves with the rest of the "Chooches" the headaches of running a spaghetti supper.
Jo Ann Costanzo leaves behind her school books for cook books.
Barbara DeChellis leaves her winning smile and happy-go-lucky ways to Sandra Olney.

In witness thereof, we, the class of 1955 of M.H.S. hereby set our hand and seal to this our last will and testament on this 14 day of June, 1955.

Class Prophecy

by Janet Guild

Aha! 1965, and this is the year the Class of '55 signed up, en masse, for its first rocket trip to Mars. Hurtling through space in this great comfortable ship at the unbelievable rate of 2000 miles per hour, I scan the familiar faces of my fellow rocket-ship-mates. It seems incredible that only ten years have passed since these, my former classmates and I, were attending our graduation exercises from the then beautifully new and modern high school. Whoops! we fell into an air pocket! Well, we can't turn back now, so I'll make the best of it by re-acquainting you, the reader, with each of these now well-adjusted citizens.

First, I'll start with the crew of this ship of the air. The pilot, Benny Brown, is ably assisted by his shapely stewardess, Barb Dunne. Gordon Carr is at the radarscope (he studied at U. S. A. F.), and Bob Brackett is on the shortwave radio, still listening in. I guess we're in pretty safe hands, but so much for the crew. From the ship's roster, I've learned most of the careers of the occupants of the long rows of comfortable seats. At the front, in seats one and two, we find a famous politician. Duncan Ferguson, currently running for the Speaker of any available house, is sitting with his capable campaign manager, Iris Jeanguenin. Across the aisle, perfectly relaxed as usual, we find a few of our outstanding figures in the sports world. 'Terrible Tony' Vadala, the international wrestling championship contender and his manager, Johnny 'Peanut Cookie' Mitchell, are comfortably reclining behind the Celtic's star, 'Big Jim' Evans. He is accompanied by slender coach Bill Maxwell.

Mellow tones are issuing forth from one section of the plane. Only one group could produce such melody. Sure enough, it's the 'Three Bobs and a Cat,' Bob Shaw, Bob Wyckoff, Bob Thomas, and Jeannie Burrell practising the new hit tunes, 'School Days,' and 'The East Street Blues.' I've had the pleasure of seeing them on such television productions as Thelma Walker's 'Musical Revue,' Elaine Thompson and Lenny Belli's 'Trumpet and Drums Musicale,' and 'Interview with Joani,' (Pomfret of course.)

War hero Ricky O'Malley and his superior officer, General Don Fagan, are supposedly discussing war tactics and camouflaging, . . . always their specialty, but I have every idea that Ricky is trying to sell his old pal Donnie Flynn to the general as the 'Devastating Don' of the armed service posters. In one of the seats farther back, I can see director of 'Fireside Theater,' Norma Devine helping Sonny Morini rehearse the leading role in the new play entitled, 'The Dickens With Shakespeare,' written by none other than Lee Shepardson.

'Smily' Josie Scialoia, an advertising model for Pepsodent, is chatting amiably with the co-owners of the 'Chooch Spaghetti House,' Barb DeChellis and Squeeky Ricci, while Joanne Costanzo, wearing one of designer Bob Nordberg's latest fashions, proudly displays photographs of her own little fashions, 'The Cutillo Cuties.'

My seat partner is Sonja Ohle, the owner of a brand new drug store in Foxboro. She tells me that Donnie Lovely is currently running 'King's Drugs' in Mansfield, (formerly Lord's). His most frequent customer is the former Jan Martin buying baby things for her pint sized quintet, a future basketball team.

My nose tells me that Gene Thibault brought along a portable chemistry set and now, he, Butch Ross, and Bill Todesco are attempting to make a sweet-smelling version of hydrogen sulfide, (better known as the stink bomb.)

Kevin Jackson, the starting pitcher for the Yankees, is trying his best to do business with George Weber, the president of the 'Friendly Loan Bank.' They are seated in front of Helen Carr, who, by the way, is sitting all alone. Ruthie Shribman, the society editor of the New York Times, told me the reason when I inquired a while ago. It seems that Helen is the first lady tax collector of Bristol County.

Ralph Maloon and Tom Foster never were seen without their slide rules, and now is no exception. They were hired by the sponsor of this trip because of their fame as math professors at 'Wizardry School of Algebra'. They are calculating the timing, speed and fuel mileage of this journey. Speaking of schools, the principal and superintendent of M.H.S., Eleanor Fales and Carol Briggs respectively, are seated opposite her honor, Nancy Spaulding, Mayor, of Mansfield. No squabbles now, the women are in charge!

The floor is cluttered with a variety of papers and cigarette ashes and needs a sweeping badly, so the two most likely to succeed in this field, Joanne Wills and Dave Dustin, volunteered for the job. As Dave passed me, I asked him what Carol Toepler was doing now. He wasn't sure, but he'd heard that she was playing on a woman's softball team. Oh well, she always did like to play the field.

Why, there's Duffy Codding, the captain and pitcher of the same softball team. I understand that they've had an undefeated season. Well, I can't say I'm surprised.

I see Jeanette Ferri has brought along her set of dumbells. She just achieved the United States women's weight-lifting championship title. Elaine Marcheselli, an ardent Yankee fan, has with her her beautiful golden boxer dog, Brandy III. She's keeping him in strict training for the coming international canine show.

Dave May and Dotti Manson seem to be enjoying a deep conversation across from me. They must be working on a sequel to the joke book they just published, "You Don't Know, Do You?" This one should be entitled, "Do You Know Yet?" Ruthie informed me that the cartoon work in their publication is done by Pete Sabin and Charlie Farley.

Grouped at the back talking shop and stuff are some of our industrious clerical experts. Paula Thompson, secretary to Butch Gormely, the president of Dubble Bubble Gum, Inc., is asking Dr. Robert Griswold's medical secretary Phyllis Lunn, about his new 'Amore' injection. The Long twins are very interested in this stab which is supposed to cure all heartaches. Incidentally, Alice and Arlene, along with Sylvia Pasquariello, have been very busy compiling a statistical survey on the reasons for tardiness in the public schools.

One of the more popular members of our shipboard clan is Butch Murphy, wearing dashing Bermuda shorts. Butch is the winner of the recent Pan American road race and with him are his expert mechanics, Dick Galanti, and Billy Buck.

I see on the walls some ads put up personally by some of the passengers. Jean MacVicar's 'Knitwear Shop,' Angie DiMaggio's 'Baseball Autographs Unlimited,' Marcia Thayer's monthly publication, 'Foxboro Capers,' and Mary Smith's 'Lending Library' are among the outstanding.

I guess I've covered about everyone. Wait, Jackie Agan, the girl's basketball coach at M.H.S. is right in front of me. How could I overlook someone who has produced the first undefeated season since 1955!

As for me, I'm the author of the book entitled "Who's Who in Mansfield?", and it's funny, but the most important and successful who's are all from the class of '55!

Oh my, we've hit Mars! Why, they're begging us to take charge of the planet! Why not? We always were good at running things, and I guess about now I'd better run, ... But fast!

Class Play

Many of the seniors will never forget those little green books that were their constant companions during the month of January. They represented hours of faithful study and rehearsing for the performances on February 17 and 18.

Aside from the usual headaches brought on by numerous last-minute upsets, "Money Mad", under the direction of Mr. Robert Tighe, was presented before an audience of over four hundred people in the high school auditorium.

Our class was very proud to have the distinction of staging the first play in the new auditorium. From all reports heard after the curtains were drawn, the actors did a fine job in carrying out the local tradition of producing an entertaining high school play.
